Name: Stephen G. Handy

Office: House of Representatives

District: 16

E-mail address: steve@votehandy.com

Website: www.votehandy.com

Age: 59

Occupation: Marketing Communications and Public Relations

Residence: 1355 E. 625 N. Layton, UT 84040

Years at residence: 10 (32 years in Layton)

Qualifications: After serving on the Layton City Council from 2000 to 2008, and in numerous other community and civic capacities, I have the political experience and background to serve in the legislature. Since my appointment in April 2010, I have been busily engaged and am currently assigned to the Business/Labor and Transportation standing committees and the Public Education appropriations committee. As a small businessman, I understand the challenges of building and nurturing a small business in the face of heavy taxes and regulations. Government is too big and taxes are too high and we in Utah must continue to responsibly assert our 10th Amendment states rights to preserve our individual and collective liberties. Additionally, supporting immigration reform is a top priority. Finally, Utah teachers and schools must be adequately funded. Utah's future lies in the quality of education we deliver to our children today. As a state we face enormous challenges but they are not insurmountable if we move forward guided by conservative principles of honest, responsible, and efficient government. I look forward to the support of voters this November in District 16 and the opportunity to continue to serve them in the Utah House of Representatives.
